

MILTON MENACE JR. A HOCKEY CLUB MANAGEMENT AND COACHING STAFF

DAN DEL MONTE

General Manager

- Spent 15 years playing professional hockey in Germany and Italy where he compiled over 1,000 points and won five championships
- OHL Player: 1993/94 Peterborough Petes - 1994/1995 Sarnia Sting (leading scorer & Team MVP)
- Played two years in the OJHL with the Oakville Blades, winning rookie of the year and the scoring title
- Coached seven seasons (2012-2019) for the Toronto Young Nationals of the Greater Toronto Hockey League
- Founder, director and head instructor of Bronko Academy
- Served as Head scout for the NHLPA All Canadian program 2011-2013

JUSTIN PECA

Head Coach

- Spent 12 seasons as a head coach, assistant coach and player development coach with the Trenton Goldenhawks OJHL (2018), Brampton Beast ECHL (2017), North York Rangers GTHL AAA (2015-2017), Mississauga Steelheads OHL (2015), Newmarket Hurricanes OJHL (2012-2013), York Simcoe AAA (2010-2012), Streetsville Derby OPJHL (2009-2010) and the Villanova Knights OPJHL (2007-2009)
- Lead the 2012-2013 Newmarket Hurricanes to victory in the North/East Conference Championship
- Spent 20 seasons playing professional hockey in Germany and Italy, where he was twice named the most valuable defenceman
- Founder and director of New Age Hockey Development and head instructor with Mike Weaver's Defense First school

JEFF ANGELIDIS

Associate Coach & Assistant GM

- Spent the past eight seasons as a head coach for the Toronto Jr. Canadiens OJHL (2016-2019), Brampton Bombers GOHL (2015-2016), Toronto Jr. Canadiens Midget AAA (2012-2015) and the Milton Icehawks (2011-2012)
- Compiled a 88-59-13 record during his three seasons with the Toronto Jr. Canadiens OJHL
- Represented the OJHL at the Eastern Canada Cup during each of his first three seasons with the Canadiens
- Played four seasons in the OPJHL for the Markham Waxers, Spirit of Stouffville, Ajax Axemen and the Newmarket Hurricanes, two seasons of NCAA for Elmira College and four years of professional hockey in North America and Europe

PETER DRIKOS

Assistant Coach

- Spent seven years as a head coach and assistant coach between the Brampton Bombers GOJHL (2017-2019), Orangeville Flyers OJHL (2016-2017), Toronto Patriots OJHL (2015-2016), Mississauga Senators GTHL (2013-2015) and Toronto Young Nationals GTHL (2012-2013)
- Played four seasons in the OPJHL for the Streetsville Derby's, Ajax Axemen, St. Michael's Buzzers, Georgetown Raiders, and the Stouffville Spirit, one season at Ryerson University, and three seasons professional hockey in North America between the AAHL, SPHL and FHL
- Owner and operator of 1Up Athletics, which provides personal training and on & off-ice sport specific training