Milton Menace Billet and Billet Family Policies and Guidelines

Thank you for volunteering to billet a Milton Menace OJHL hockey player.

Billeting is a hockey tradition and is especially important at the elite level of hockey. This concept involves local host families providing a home to out-of-city or out-of-country players for the hockey season. The billet program allows these young men to complete their high school educations, take college preparatory classes while pursuing the next steps in their hockey career. It can be an extremely rewarding and exciting experience for anyone willing to open their home to elite hockey players who are committing to play for the Milton Menace.

The Milton Menace believes that one of the components of success is to provide a comfortable living environment for each of our billet players. The player you are hosting needs your guidance, support, and positive family environment to be successful. There are high expectations of these players both on and off the ice and added demands of these situations can create additional stress for them. As a result, we strive to find homes that provide a positive family environment. You are acting as his parents and are the primary adult influence in his life. We ask that you treat players as you would your own children – by supporting them in academic and athletic endeavors, imposing discipline when necessary, and players are strongly encouraged to embrace the challenges of moving into a new home and become actively involved with the family that has so generously welcomed them into their home.

Please read the information that follows as it outlines both what is expected from you and what you can expect from your billeted player.

Thank you, again, for opening your home and providing a positive environment for our players. It is our amazing host families who make our organization a success each year. Many of our families who have billeted in the past usually look back at their experience with fond memories and still keep in touch with their players as they move through the ranks of college/university and professional hockey.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact The Milton Menace.

CURFEW

Players are to be in their own host family home by the following times unless otherwise agreed.

- Sunday through Thursday - 10pm
- Friday and Saturday - 11PM Note: Times may change at the coaches' discretion

COMMUNICATION

It is the player's responsibility to make sure their host family and coaches are aware of where they are at all times. Player's may not come and go from home without communication and permission. Check with your respective family and ask if texting is okay or if they want you to call directly. If you do agree to text, make sure your text is confirmed by BOTH host family and the coaching staff. This also includes anytime you are not going directly home after practices and/or school.

SOCIAL BEHAVIOR

The player is expected to respect the host family's home and family members and to honor any general house rules. It is expected that the payer will maintain the cleanliness of their room and all common areas, wash their own clothes and respect the wishes of the host family.

SLEEPOVERS/ HANGING OUT with teammates

- Players may ONLY stay overnight or "hang out" in their own host home and at the homes of teammates.
- For school projects at a schoolmate's you will need both the contact home phone number and address of where you will be working on the project, as well as the parent's name that will be home.
- Players in school are encouraged to have ALL their homework caught up and have passing grades in ALL classes prior to spending leisure time "hanging out" with teammates.
- Players should not be at teammates homes without the host parents being home or prior permission from that family.
- When you are invited to "hangout" at a teammates home, please plan to bring your own snacks/food/drinks when you visit unless you have been invited by that family to come for a meal.

TRANSPORTATION

It is the player's responsibility to provide their own transportation to school/work. If they are not driving, take the bus/Uber. Practices and games can be coordinated with a teammate. Please do not have the billet family take on ALL the responsibility of giving rides.

If you are driving you must have a valid license, your car must be registered either in your home town or current city, and you must have car insurance, it is a law.

Unfortunately, with the prevalence of viruses and risk to unwittingly damaging a host family computer we ask that you do not use your host family's computer.

However, during these times you are still expected to attend all hockey practices, events and meet your school attendance/homework requirements.

- Families, we ask that you do not request to have your son's host family put you up while you are here.

WHEN YOUR HOST FAMILY IS OUT OF TOWN

Players may not stay at their host family's home while that family is out of town unless proper arrangements have been made. On your discretion, contact the coaching staff and we will make alternative arrangements for you during your host family's absence.
